Dear Festival Goer

This summer, Hebden Bridge Arts Festival is marking the 2008 UN Year of Languages by celebrating the languages of art, music, drama and literature. In addition to this, the Many Voices series of events marked with a has been specially programmed to illustrate how language can be used in unusual and sometimes unexpected ways. We have enjoyed putting this exciting programme together and hope you find the performances entertaining, enlightening and uplifting. Alongside the Many Voices events, we are hoping to tempt you with a treasure hunt, literary lunches, a poetry slam, drama, comedy and music from folk to flamenco. We might even persuade you to take to the streets in a cappella harmony! And please don't forget to visit the artists holding Open Studios (listed on our website).

The Festival could not happen without the financial support of Arts Council England, Hebden Royd Town Council, Halifax, Calderdale MBC, Sweet & Maxwell and Musicians in Residence (Arts Council). And just as important is the invaluable support of all our volunteers. We couldn't do this without you and would like to thank you all. And last, but not at all least, we would like to thank Enid Stephenson, whose time, work and dedication in recent years, made the Festival what it is today.

Baghdad Lullabies

The Electric Voice Theatre
with Frances M Lynch

Ted Hughes Theatre, Calder High School,
Mytholmroyd

8.00pm to 10.00pm approx

£12 (£10) £3 under 16s

The Festival is thrilled to welcome back Frances M Lynch with an exciting series of new work:

Eduardo Reck Miranda: Requiem per una veu perduda - a series of epitaphs by Robert Burns, set in a Requiem Mass by this acclaimed Brazilian composer. A beautiful work which echoes with the sounds of lost voices.

Paul Barker: Three Lullabies - No.3 is a world première.

Alejandro Viñao: The Baghdad Monologue - the centre of the Middle East conflict as portrayed through a woman's eyes and the infamous words of Bush, Blair and co.

Using cutting-edge sound technology, live processing and surround sound space manipulation, the vocal agility of the soloist is enhanced to create a rich tapestry of sound.

This is electrifying, mystical and devastating vocal theatre. A stunning production set in the surroundings of a wonderful new theatre and a great way to start the festival. 'Britain's leading electro-acoustic music theatre ensemble' (The Independent) www.electricvoicetheatre.co.uk

Street Entertainment

St. George's Square and surrounding area,
Hebden Bridge

12 noon to 4.00pm approx

Lunchtime Concert: The Caccia Quintet

Heptonstall Church

1.00pm to 2.00pm approx

£6 (£4) £1 under 16s

The Caccia Quintet consists of Daniela Hawryliuk on flute, Dan Pope on oboe, Dulcie Jones on clarinet, Liz Versi on bassoon and Tom Fisher, who plays the French horn. They formed in 2003 under the watchful eyes of the Galliard Ensemble and now play from a wide and varied repertoire.

This mainly French programme features works by Milhaud, Ibert and Gounod amongst others. www.cacciaquintet.co.uk

Steve Day – Deafy's Island Discs

Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge
 9.00pm to 10.30pm approx
 £9 (£7)

Radio 4's Steve Day, comedian and actor, hearing-impaired since the age of eighteen, is warm, witty and engaging whilst dealing with the dilemmas of being a deaf man in a hearing man's world. In this show, he plays and talks about seven records he remembers and misses most. Come along and hear what he can't. This will be a signed performance.

'Day has moved up to the premier league of stand-up' (The Stage).

Steve Day

Ian Marchant – Performance and Quiz

The Hole In The Wall, Hangingroyd Lane, Hebden Bridge
 8.00pm
 Performance free, quiz entry £3 per person.

Writer, performer and self-confessed pub quiz addict Ian Marchant is the author of Parallel Lines, an investigation into the British love affair with railways, and The Longest Crawl, an account of a journey between pubs on the Scilly Isles and the Shetlands that takes in many essential and intoxicating stops in between. Part memoir, part irreverent lecture tour, Ian's books and performances are genre busting excursions off the beaten track.

Ian will follow his performance by hosting a special quiz where you and your team will be able to pit your wits against the finest brains in the Calder Valley. Ian will present a prize to the victorious team. 'Drunkenly funny, obsessively factual, soberingly poignant' (Simon Armitage on The Longest Crawl)

The Lady of Burma

Performed by Liana Mau Tan Gould

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

7.45pm to 8.55pm approx

£10 (£8)

The inspirational story of Burmese leader Aung San Suu Kyi is told in this compelling solo performance about the life of the only Nobel Peace Prize winner who is also a political prisoner. Despite being head of the democratically-elected political party, Burma's military junta have kept Suu Kyi under house arrest for over a decade.

This powerful performance has already had sell-out runs at the Edinburgh Festival and the Old Vic in London. Regardless of what you know or think you know about Burmese politics, this show is an unmissable hymn to the power of the human spirit in the quest for freedom.

'Rarely is a show so powerful' (The Independent)

The V.O. Quartet

Heptonstall Church

8.00pm to 10.00pm approx

£9 (£7) £2 under 16s

Naomi Wedman violin

Kirsten Tinkler violin

Rebecca Macauley viola

Frances Bartlett cello

The V.O. Quartet

The V.O. Quartet is NOT a typical string quartet! Although classically trained, these four breathtakingly talented women draw upon a wide range of musical flavours to create their unique and bewitching brew. Their influences include folk music from Ireland, Great Britain and South America; Klezmer and Gypsy music; contemporary pop and jazz. These different styles are combined to create a concert of strong melodies and haunting harmonies that will make you want to laugh, cry or dance! This is a group unafraid to engage with their audience. V.O Quartet shows are intimate and chatty, with warmth and humour shining throughout the performance. Don't miss it!

Luke Wright – Poet and Man

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge
 7.45pm to 8.50pm approx
 £9 (£7)

Britain's brightest, sharpest, best-dressed and most punchably handsome comic performance poet brings his latest show to Hebden Bridge. A rip-roaring raconteur and a hugely engaging performer, Wright's show fuses Larkinesque commuter belt ennui with a quick-fire wit.

A 2007 4Talent Award winner, Luke is the host of Glastonbury's Leftfield stage and has two five star solo Edinburgh shows under his belt. His debut, the multi-media Luke Wright, Poet Laureate took the 2006 Edinburgh Fringe Festival by storm, scooping a clutch of 5 star reviews before completing a national tour. Poet and Man has won Luke a 'Spirit of the Fringe' award. 'The hard-working heir to John Hegley... comic verse is in rude health and the spearhead of its revival is Luke Wright' (The Guardian)
www.lukewright.co.uk

Followed by:

Chips n Quips Poetry Slam

compered by Luke Wright
 AJ's Fish & Chip Restaurant
 Doors open 9.00pm, slam starts approx 9.30pm
 £4 – includes chips!

Think you can cut the mustard (not to mention the ketchup, the tartare sauce, the salt and the vinegar) in the live poetry world? Luke Wright, the Slam-Master-General, will host an evening where you get the chance to jostle and joust (in a totally safe, verbal way) with your fellow poets in the charming surroundings of Yorkshire's funkier chippy.

Luke Wright

Phill Jupitus Reads Dickens

Hebden Bridge Picture House
 8.30pm to 9.30pm approx
 £12 (£10)

During the reign of Queen Victoria, Charles Dickens performed readings of his work at The Assembly Rooms in Edinburgh. Phill Jupitus, well-known to many as team captain on Never Mind the Buzzcocks and It's Only TV, But I Like It, will audaciously recreate this event at Hebden Bridge Picture House. No dressing up but some silly voices.

Phill Jupitus

Blake Morrison - 'And When Did You Last See Your Father?'

Hebden Bridge Picture House
8.00pm to 10.30pm approx

Skipton-born poet, novelist and journalist Blake Morrison returns to Yorkshire to introduce the film of his best-selling memoir And When Did You Last See Your Father? The book is a tender, vivid, unsentimental tribute to a larger than life character which created an entire genre of autobiographical works. The film, starring Colin Firth, Jim Broadbent and Juliet Stevenson, is a classic British bittersweet comedy that faithfully recreates a lost era.

After the film, Blake will be signing copies of his books. 'Anand Tucker achieves the near-impossible by delivering a movie that is as engrossing and emotionally powerful as Morrison's book. It is a film likely to strike a chord in almost everybody' (Evening Standard)

Blake Morrison

Word & Violin

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge
7.30pm to 9.15pm approx
£10 (£8)

Sri Lankan poet Pireeni Sundaralingam and Irish composer/violinist Colm O'Riain weave together poetry and music in a series of duets that explore the rich interconnections between lyric traditions.

From Irish ballad and Indian raag, to gypsy flamenco and Bayou blues, San Francisco-based Pireeni and Colm, each a prize-winning artist in their own right, combine voice and violin in inventive, astonishing ways.

Maria McKee

Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge
9.30pm to 11.30 pm approx
£12 (£10)

First coming to prominence as the teenage leader of cult rockers Lone Justice, Maria McKee went on to find global fame with the hit single Show Me Heaven. A gifted songwriter who penned the number one A Good Heart for Feargal Sharkey, Maria has continued to develop her own unique version of classic rootsy pop. Her albums, including Life is Sweet, You Gotta Sin To Get Saved and her latest, Late December, mix lyrical honesty and poignant observation with an unshakeable belief in the power of a good tune. This is a low key Independence Day British one-off for one of America's greatest talents.

3.00pm to 3.45pm approx
£6 (£4)

Awarded Best Children's Show of Brighton
Festival 2006

Shoe Baby is a magical puppet show! A fantastical sing-along adventure with a baby who takes to the sea, the air, the zoo, all in a shoe! Shoe Baby is adapted from the book written by well-known author, Joyce Dunbar, published by Walker Books. The music is written by talented musician, Tom Gray of the award-winning band Gomez. This show is suitable for 2 – 6 year olds. The performance of 30 minutes will be followed by an opportunity to meet the puppets!
'Wonderful, magical children's theatre at its best'
 (Edinburgh guide)

Long Nose Puppets

Kidsfest - A Grand Day Out

Children's Art Festival
Organised by Hebden Royd Town Council
St Michael's Church Hall, Mytholmroyd
12 noon to 4.00pm
Free

Bring your children, parents and great grandparents to this one-day event. We need as many people as possible to complete the Mytholmroyd Trail – A Bird's Eye View of Mytholmroyd – capturing pieces of the surroundings on a minute and vast scale. During the day, there will be craft activities, characters in fancy dress and healthy refreshments. Come, paint, sprinkle glitter, watch and enjoy!

Lunchtime Piano Recital: Mutian Xu

Heptonstall Church

1.00pm to 2.00pm approx

£6 (£4) £1 under 16s

Haydn: Variations in F minor Hob. XVII:6

Liszt: *Etudes d'execution transcendante No 11:

Richard Dedomenici

Artsmill, Linden Mill, Linden Road, Hebden Bridge

4.30pm to 5.30pm approx

Conceptual artist and internationally renowned one man subversive think-tank Richard Dedomenici launches his specially commissioned Hebden Bridge Arts Festival Treasure Hunt with a presentation at the Artsmill. Is it live art? Is it a stroll around the environs of Hebden Bridge in the pursuit of small but significant pieces of loot? Come and let Richard tell you exactly where to go and why you should go there.

Special secret Festival Treasure Hunt clues will be available at this performance and from Sunday 6 July at the Box Office.

Consistently funny.....frighteningly effective'

The London Bulgarian Choir

Heptonstall Church
8pm to 10pm approx
£10 (£8) £2 under 16s

The London Bulgarian Choir won BBC Radio 3's Choir of the Year (Open Category) in 2006 for a performance which had one judge in tears, another lost for words, and which the third judge described as 'magical from start to finish'. The close harmonies and emotional resonance of the songs are spine-tingling. In addition to the haunting music, choir leader Dessislava Stefanova will give you a glimpse of Bulgarian folklore and legend, from the comedy of stuffed peppers and home-made socks, to the tragedy of unrequited love, through to the passionate defiance of a culture struggling to survive through the centuries. The choir had the audience dancing in the aisles in Rye last year and was a highlight of the Swaledale Festival 2006. Dessi will lead a workshop earlier in the day (see workshop section for more info).

Words on the Street

In partnership with The July Project, sponsored by Halifax

St. George's Square and surrounding area,
Hebden Bridge

1.00pm to 4.00pm approx

Free

A street festival of singing by community and school choirs from the local area and beyond. Come and enjoy a day of song!

Halifax and The July Project have worked with the Arts Festival to offer school choirs a touch of professional tuition through workshops. Come and see them perform alongside established community choirs including Hebden Bridge's very own Calder Valley Voices.

Lunchtime Piano Recital: Alissa Zoubritski

Heptonstall Church
1.00pm to 2.00pm approx
£6 (£4) £1 under 16s

Another musical star on the ascent, young Moldovan pianist Alissa Zoubritski studied at the Conservatoire Régional in Paris and at the Conservatoire National Supérieur in Lyon. More recently, she won a scholarship to study at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London, under the tuition of French music specialist Paul Roberts. For this recital Alissa will play pieces by Haydn, Debussy, Rachmaninov, Borodin and Chopin.

Literary Lunch with Adèle Geras & Sophie Hannah

The Dusty Miller, Mytholmroyd
1.00pm to 2.30pm approx

£24 includes two-course meal with wine and entry to Artsmill event at 4.30pm

Adèle Geras has published more than ninety books for children and young adults as well as four novels for adults, the most recent of which is A Hidden Life. Her daughter Sophie Hannah writes crime fiction and poetry and her psychological thrillers have sold over 200,000 copies in the UK alone. She has been published in fourteen languages and her fifth collection of poetry, Pessimism for Beginners, was shortlisted for the 2007 TS Eliot Prize.

This is an intimate and convivial Sunday Lunch restricted to eight participants, but with no limit on the scope of the conversation.

Sophie Hannah

Adèle Geras & Sophie Hannah

Artsmill, Linden Mill, Linden Road, Hebden Bridge

Acclaimed authors and mother and daughter team Adèle Geras and Sophie Hannah will read from their work and answer questions about their lives, work and careers in a session that is certain to be illuminating for anyone interested in contemporary writing.

Adèle Geras

Barnabas Hegyi - Countertenor Recital

Heptonstall Church
8.00pm to 10.00pm approx
£9 (£7) £2 under 16s

With Petra Somlai on piano and harpsichord and Heather Broadbent on cello

Born in Hungary, Barnabas Hegyi is a fast rising star in the musical world. Having studied organ and conducting at the Liszt Academy of Music in Budapest, he decided to focus on his vocal studies with Eva Lax. A year later he claimed first prize in the national singing contest and has since won other awards in Italy, Spain and Hungary.

Barnabas has performed in Oratorio with Helmut Rilling Opera (with a recent highly acclaimed performance in Monteverdi's Orfeo), and given solo recitals. His precision, refined embellishment and purity of tone will enchant the audience in this unmissable programme which includes the music of Schutz, Buxtehude, Purcell and Samuel Barber. Our thanks to Roger Scaife for the generous sponsorship of this concert.

In Praise of Pennine Landscapes

Andrew Bibby & John Morrison

Artsmill, Linden Mill, Linden Road, Hebden Bridge
6.30pm to 7.30pm approx

Local writer and journalist, Andrew Bibby, whose new book The Backbone of England is an exploration of what makes the Pennine landscape so special, will be describing his journey along the Pennine watershed. He'll be revealing, among other things, the unlikely role the peat bogs of northern England have to play in the battle against global warming. John Morrison, (author of the Milltown Trilogy) who contributed the distinctive illustrations for The Backbone of England, will share some of his pictures and describe the pleasures and pitfalls of photographing the Pennine landscape.

Le Hot Club de Hebden - Extra Curricular

B@r place, Crown Street, Hebden Bridge
 9.00pm to midnight approx
 £6 (£4)

Ruby Wood: jazz vocalist
Jack Flash: MC and rhymes
Thabo Mkwanzani: vocals
Noah Burton: drums
Jack Button: bass
Martin Chung: guitar
Jez Joseph: saxophone

The festival's 'Hot Club' returns with a brand new band based in Huddersfield. E.C. features a collective of musicians who blend the raucousness of hip-hop, the improvisation and spirit of jazz, and the smooth sounds of Soul. It's a fresh gumbo of all original material inspired by the likes of Jill Scott, the Roots, A Tribe Called Quest, Anthony Hamilton and anything else with real soul.

Trades Youngplugged – Singer Songwriters Night

Presented by Steve Tilston and featuring Martha Tilston

Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge
 8.00pm to 11.00pm approx
 £7 (£5)

An acoustic night at the Trades to celebrate the young singer songwriters of our valley. Come and be entertained, charmed and wowed by the talent of tomorrow.

Steve Tilston is one of this country's greatest songwriters with many of his songs considered modern folk classics and covered by Fairport Convention, Dolores Keane, John Wright and many others. 'Martha Tilston is on her way to being considered one of Britain's finest young singer songwriters'

(Orpheus magazine/Virgin)

Ed Byrne

Picture House, New Road, Hebden Bridge
 8.30pm to 10.30pm approx
 £15 (£13)

The acknowledged star turn of TV's Mock The Week and a regular guest on shows including Eight Out Of Ten Cats, Ed Byrne has few rivals as an observational stand-up. He has performed several hit UK tours as well as successful West End runs. Ed has also had huge success on the international circuit where he has performed to capacity audiences in Montreal, Ireland, Paris, Singapore, Sydney, Melbourne, Belgium, New Zealand and the USA.

'Tickets for his shows are like gold dust – truly a master of the art of comedy' (The List)

The Tale of Beatrix Potter

Performed by Rohan McCullough

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

7.45pm to 8.45pm approx

£10 (£8)

Following the success of last year's performance of Testament of Youth, actress Rohan McCullough returns to Hebden Bridge with another acclaimed one-woman show.

The Tale of Beatrix Potter is based on Potter's own journals, letters and diaries which have been dramatised by the late Hannah Kynaston, McCullough's mother and a cousin of Beatrix Potter. Through this spell-binding performance, Beatrix Potter emerges as a likeable woman, both strong-willed and sensitive, who led a life touched by unlikely happiness and unexpected tragedy.

'A lyrical and captivating portrayal of the famous storyteller' (The Independent)

Rohan McCullough

Moths Ate My Doctor Who Scarf

Performed by Toby Hadoke

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

7.45pm to 9.05pm approx

£10 (£8)

Get out from behind that sofa and get aboard award-winning comedian Toby Hadoke's Tardis on a trip through time, charting the rise, fall and subsequent rise of a television legend. A swift, personal, satirical and razor-sharp comic odyssey from child to man, through obsession, joy and disappointment.

A must-see show for anyone who's ever had a passion for anything. Intimate knowledge of Doctor Who not required, though a disdain for The Daily Mail, George Galloway, BNP, football hooligans and Hollyoaks would be useful.

Suitable for 12+

Tamaki Dickenson: viola
Nicolas Stringfellow: cello
Eleanor Hodgkinson: piano

Enescu: Partita for solo violin
Mozart: Quartet in B flat: "The Hunt"
Schumann: Piano Quintet

Comprising five electric young musicians, the Enescu Ensemble is a dynamic and vibrant chamber ensemble, formed in 2007 by performers who had all been students at the RNCM. The Enescu Ensemble reignites their passion and flair for music making, with an emphasis on a fresh programme that isn't necessarily well known, but will excite audiences.

Music at Walshaw

Margaret Bruce: piano
Moshe Friedman: cello

Walshaw Lodge, Hardcastle Craggs
3.30pm; recital begins promptly at 4.00pm (to 6.00pm approx)
£15

Vivaldi: Sonata no.7 in A minor
Beethoven: Sonata no.3 in A
Janacek: Pohadka
Tucapsky: New piece for cello and piano (to be performed in the presence of the composer)
Franck: Sonata

A Hungarian who grew up in Romania, studied in Israel and worked in Paris, this is Moshe Friedman's first visit to Yorkshire. Margaret Bruce's musical career has taken her to many parts of the world, appearing as a soloist with orchestras including the Royal Philharmonic at the Barbican and the Plovdiv Symphony in Bulgaria. Glorious music and a delicious tea are guaranteed at this event which is a firm Festival favourite.

The Elephant Man

Devised and written by Mary Swan & Saul Jaffé
for Proteus Theatre Company

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge
7.45pm to 9.00pm approx
£11 (£9)

Performed by Saul Jaffé
Directed by Mary Swan

The Elephant Man is the moving, poetic and ultimately uplifting story of the life of John Merrick. Having recently celebrated its 25th year of producing professional theatre, Proteus has created a version for the twenty first century. In a highly physical, one-man tour-de-force, the production explores the journey of this remarkable man, from an object of curiosity and social revulsion to celebrity. His life and tragic destiny are as relevant today in our image-obsessed culture as they ever were. Merrick's story provokes us to examine our own attitudes and the value we place on beauty. ## Literary Lunch with Suzanne Berne & Marjorie Sandor

The Dusty Miller, Mytholmroyd
1.00pm to 2.30pm approx

£24 includes two-course meal with wine and entry to Artsmill event at 4.30pm

Suzanne Berne won the Orange prize in 1999 for her first novel A Crime In The Neighbourhood. She followed this with the equally acclaimed A Perfect Arrangement and The Ghost At The Table and has proved herself both a master story-teller and a skilful observer of the tensions of contemporary American life. Marjorie Sandor is the winner of the National Jewish Book award in fiction and the author of three books including the story collection A Portrait of my Mother Who Posed Nude in War-time.

This is an intimate convivial Sunday Lunch with two of America's most charming and talented writers. The event is limited to eight participants, the scope of the conversation is without any limits at all.

Marcia Howard, Damian Howard & The Ploughboys

The 2008 Taking The Music Back Tour

Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

9.30pm to 11.30 pm approx

£9 (£7)

Introducing a group of exceptional musicians from Australia:

Marcia and Damian Howard possess awesome and expressive vocal abilities and both have highly successful solo careers. They come together with one of Australia's most popular high-energy festival bands, the Ploughboys, most often described as an Australian-Celtic/ Folk-Rock mix of the Waterboys with a touch of the Pogues, performing original songs that carry the authentic reek of both the Irish and Australian landscapes.

A wild, ecstatic night out, and the perfect band to bring the curtain down on this year's festival!
