Festival time is here again and we've got lots lined up for all you performance-hungry people out there! Music? Choose from classical, folk, bhangra, blues or jazz. Literature? Take your pick from performance poetry, history, humour or Booker-prize winning fiction. And if theatre is what you want, we've got the premieres of six new plays and two great family shows. And don't forget the comedy, exhibitions, open gardens and a brand new venue in the form of a bus! We're also proud to have our very own Artist in Residence, Lucy May Schofield – if you meet her with her sketch book, please be sure to give her a warm Hebden welcome.

2010 is the packhorse bridge's 500th anniversary year, and to mark this we have programmed special events which are marked with the HB500 logo:

These events will showcase work rooted in Tudor times, or celebrate artists and performers who have put down roots in our town, a place that never fails to inspire and nurture the creative spirit.

New for 2010 is online booking. Tickets for most events will be available online - just follow the links from our website. Also new this year, is an under 26s ticket price, available for many events. And look out for Festivale! Brewed for us by the lovely people at Little Valley Brewery, it will be available in pubs and venues across the town during the Festival.

The Festival could not happen without the financial support of Arts Council England, Yorkshire, Hebden Royd Town Council and our sponsors Sweet & Maxwell. We're also very grateful to our new sponsors, Kala Gallery, to Calderdale Council and to all those businesses who have offered support in kind. And last but certainly not least, we'd like to acknowledge the invaluable support of all our volunteers. You're too numerous to name individually, but you know who you are - a big thank you to you all!

Have a good Festival!

Hebden Bridge Handmade Parade

Saturday, June 26th from 2pm

Spectacular costumes, giant puppets, music, dance...and YOU! Join us as the Hebden Bridge Handmade Parade enters its third, fabulous year.

This year, we're inviting you all to take a Hop, Skip and a Jump to celebrate journeys real and imaginary - there'll be a riot of colour dancing through our streets to celebrate our town and community.

The parade starts at 2pm at Victoria Road and will finish at Calder Holmes Park for a pageant, music and food from 3pm to 5pm.

If you just saw it last year, come and be in it this year. If you were in it last year, come again and bring your friends! This year's Hebden Bridge Handmade Parade is going to be bigger and better than ever.

Open Workshops

June 5th to 24th

Tuesdays and Thursdays – 4-6pm

Saturdays and Sundays – 1-4pm

Come and make your own amazing art at our workshop and then parade it down the street, cheered on by thousands. All materials and instruction provided. All welcome. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Parade skills classes

Fancy building your own giant parade art? Or the excitement of walking on stilts? Our classes in witty structures, papier-mâché and stiling are for adults and teens who want to learn a new skill. No experience needed! Check the website for more details.

Some Festival highlights

Get on board the bus! A key feature of this year's Festival is our converted Routemaster bus, on loan to us from Colchester Arts Centre. During the Festival, poets, writers, singers and artists will be offering daytime performances in this unique and iconic venue. Pop into the Festival Shop to find out what's on, and queue at the bus for your ticket!

And don't miss our Artist in Residence Lucy May

Schofield. Lucy will create a page-a-day response to Hebden Bridge over the two weeks of the Festival. Her findings, wanderings, conversations and meanderings through the town will provide the inspiration for a hand-bound limited edition artist's publication in celebration of Hebden Bridge's 500-year heritage. Using rudimentary printing methods and her mobile adana letterpress, the book will be a visual and textual mapped narrative of her experiences and insights supplied by the local community on her two-week residency. Be sure to stop and say hello.

Lucy's Bibliotherapy Artist's Book Library will take place on the Routemaster bus during the Festival. Give Lucy a visit and get a dose of art, literature and listening to soothe your woes! Lucy will also be running book-making workshops on Saturday 10 and Sunday 11 July.

You can read more about Lucy's work at www.lucymayschofield.co.uk

Performances

The Hebden Hop with The Cadillac Kings and GI Jive

Mytholmroyd Community Centre

7.30pm to 12am

£12 (£10)

This will be a night to remember - for all the jive, swing and lindy-hop enthusiasts out there, and also for lovers of great live music. Firm favourites on the blues and jump-jive scenes, The Cadillac Kings feature six of the UK's top blues and roots musicians and have a reputation for wowing live audiences.

GI Jive, one of the best-known DJs on the scene, joins The Cadillac Kings to make sure you wear out your dancing shoes!

Refreshments will be available from the Marvellous Tea Dance Company. Vintage dress is encouraged!

Kissmet

Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

9.00pm to 11.30pm

£12 (£10)

We would like to thank Hebden Bridge-based Kala Gallery for their sponsorship of this event.

Kissmet create a spellbinding blend of Eastern and Western sounds that captivates crowds all over the world. Fusing bhangra (Punjabi folk music) and rock, they take audiences on a roller-coaster ride from East to West and back again leaving them breathless, exhausted and brimming with positive energy and the feel-good factor. Don't miss this vibrant and energetic opening weekend event – Kissmet will have you dancing all night!

David Nelson: Piano Recital

Heptonstall Church

1pm to 2pm

£6 (£4) £1 for under 26s

Chabrier: Improvisations

Fauré: Nocturne no.3 in A flat

Mompou: Paysages, 2 Preludes, Canción y Danza nos.1 and 6

Debussy: 6 Preludes from books 1 and 2, L'Isle Joyeuse

David Nelson is well known in the region for both his classical and jazz playing, but this is his first ever solo recital in his home town! For it, he has put together a delightful programme of French piano music, centred on the work of Claude Debussy and the composers who had influenced him. The recital also features some rarely played post-war pieces by Mompou: a composer inspired by Debussy, Ravel and Satie, who added more than a touch of his native Catalan music to his work.

Horse + Bamboo: Storm in a Teacup

Hebden Bridge Little Theatre

3pm to 3.45pm

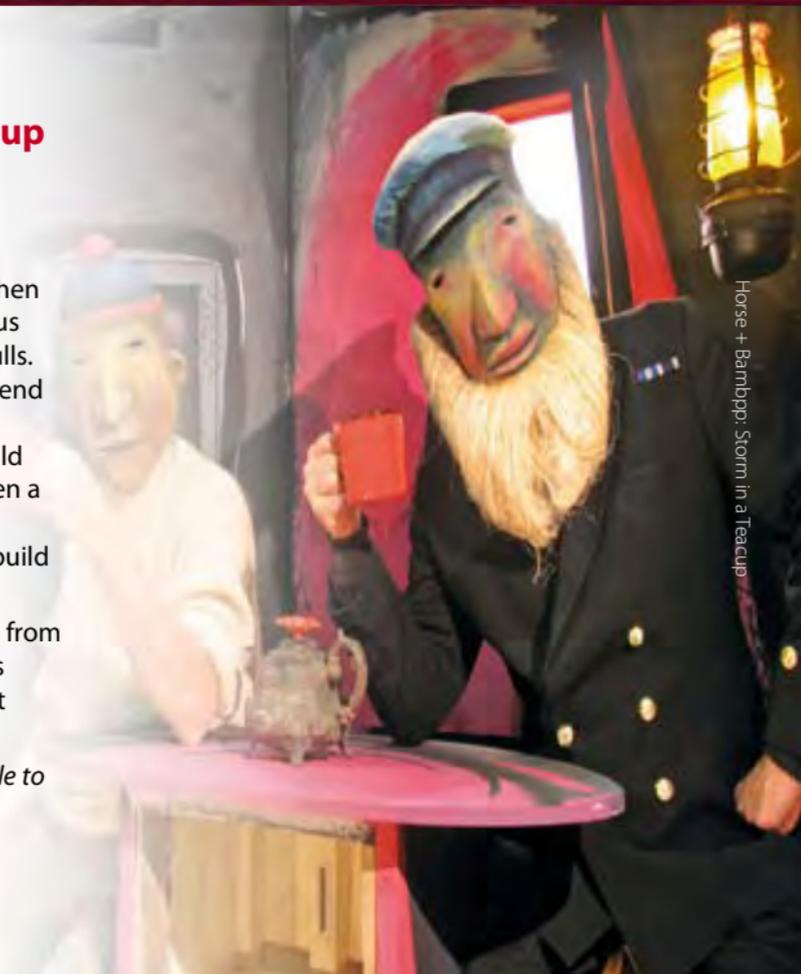

£7 (£5)

It's not always easy making friends, especially when you live in a lighthouse surrounded by dangerous rocks, towering waves and troublemaking seagulls. An exciting opportunity for a tea party with a friend arises when the supply boat comes, but the lighthouse keeper's nervousness turns what could have been a delight into a disaster. It is only when a storm blows in and real disaster looms that he can find the courage to save the day AND rebuild his friendship.

We are thrilled to have Horse + Bamboo join us from across the border in Rossendale – don't miss this great family show from one of the country's best loved theatre companies.

'A theatrical spell that is quite unique and accessible to everybody' (The Guardian)

Infinite Riches

Heptonstall Church

8pm to 10.15pm

£8 (£6)

A recital of words and music by:

Nicola Bibby: piano

Alexandra Bibby: piano

Carole Boyd: reader

The trio Infinite Riches is unique. Comprising the acclaimed Bibby Piano Duo and the multi-award winning actress Carole Boyd (Lynda Snell in The Archers), their revelatory recitals of words and music have inspired audiences across the country. This programme encompasses works by composers and poets who struggled, to varying degrees, with mental problems. It reflects on the irony that out of such personal turmoil has come much of the music and literature which sustains us through our own lives with its truth, joy and humour.

The programme will include works by Dickens, Anne Sexton, Satie, Poulenc and Peter Warlock.

John Bishop

Hebden Bridge Picture House

8pm to 10pm approx.

£15 (£13)

Following the sell-out success of his recent Elvis Has Left The Building tour, award-winning comedian John Bishop brings a preview of his brand new autumn show to the Picture House. The star of Live at the Apollo, Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow, Mock the Week and 8 Out Of 10 Cats has been hailed a 'comic revolutionary' by The Independent – don't miss him in this special one-off for the Festival.

'I can't help falling in love with this open, optimistic show' (Guardian)

John Morrison: A Bridge of Sighs

aj's Restaurant, Hebden Bridge

8pm to 9.30pm

£6.50 – includes chips!

John Morrison presents an evening of humour, reading from his sextet of books about nefarious goings-on in Milltown, a place about the same size - and map reference - as Hebden Bridge. The books are now so old and out-of-date that David Starkey plans to serialise them on BBC4. Book early to avoid disappointment.

Stay Up Later With...

Michael Bassett

The Hole in t'Wall, Hangingroyd Lane, Hebden Bridge

9.30pm to 12am

Michael Bassett: guitar, vocal
with Eleanor Davis: fiddle

Renowned for his soaring vocals and acoustic guitar-work shifting between delicate intricacy and outright slamming, Michael Bassett sends shock-waves through audiences. Great songs!

'One of our most promising and adventurous singer-songwriters' (The Woodstock Times, New York)

'Powerful lyrics, thoughtful compositions, very emotional and moving vocals... brilliant indeed!' (Rough Trade Records)

Martin Parr

Hebden Bridge Picture House

8pm to 9.30pm approx

£10 (£8) £5 under 26s

Martin Parr is one of the most well-known and influential photographers working today. In this special Festival event, he returns to Hebden Bridge to talk about his time at the Albert Street Workshop and his photographs of everyday life in the Upper Valley.

Greg Hobson, Curator of Photography at the National Media Museum, will introduce Martin and chair questions.

Louis de Bernières and Mavis Cheek

St Michael's Hall, Mytholmroyd

8pm to 9.30pm approx

£9 (£7) £5 under 26s

Literary Ticket Offer – see Louis de Bernières, Mavis Cheek, Alison Weir, Suzannah Dunn and Hilary Mantel for £22

A not-to-be missed evening for any reader of contemporary fiction. The Festival presents an evening with two distinguished novelists who will read, talk about their work and answer questions from the audience.

Louis de Bernières published his first novel in 1990. Since then he has become well known internationally as a writer. Captain Corelli's Mandolin (1994) won the Commonwealth Writers' Prize for Best Novel. Louis' latest book, Notwithstanding: Stories from an English Village came out in November 2009. As well as writing, Louis plays the flute, mandolin, clarinet and guitar.

'Meticulously done...genuinely poignant and funny'
(The Spectator on Notwithstanding)

Mavis Cheek's first novel Pause Between Acts was published in 1988 and won the She/John Menzies First Novel Prize. She is the author of thirteen novels including Mrs Fytton's Country Life, Janice Gentle Gets Sexy and, most recently, Amenable Women (about Anne of Cleves) which was described in The Times as 'a brilliantly funny, warm, intelligent read'. Her latest novel Truth To Tell (Hutchison) is published later this spring.

'You'll want to read whole paragraphs aloud to anyone who'll listen' (The Independent on Amenable Women)

Photographic Safari with John Morrison

Meet at the Fustian Knife, St George's Square,
Hebden Bridge

7pm
£10

Got a fancy digital camera, bristling with buttons and dials, but still can't seem to take a decent snap? Then join John Morrison of Magnetic North for an evening of zen photography around the streets of Hebden Bridge. Instead of chasing pictures, let them come to you! Bring DSLR camera, tripod and an open mind. Places limited to 15, so book early to avoid disappointment.

The Erringden Ensemble

Heptonstall Church

8pm to 10.15pm

£10 (£8) £2 under 26s

Paul Barritt: violin

Catherine Yates: violin

David Aspin: viola

Helen Thatcher: cello

Haydn: Quartet Op 74 no 3 in G minor

Prokofiev: Quartet no 2

Borodin: Quartet no 2

Created by renowned local cellist Helen Thatcher, The Erringden Ensemble boasts some of the most experienced chamber musicians in the country. The four playing tonight have made numerous recordings and performed all over the world. Paul has appeared with Maxim Vengerov at the Proms and across Europe, and is Permanent Guest Leader of the Hallé Orchestra. Cath is Principal 2nd of the Hallé and performed with Helen in the Sorrel Quartet for over 20 years. David is a member of contemporary music group Psappha, and is also Principal Violist of the Orchestra of Opera North.

Barbara Nice: Hiya and Higher

Mytholmroyd Working Mens Club, Stocks Avenue,
Mytholmroyd

8.30pm to 10.15pm

£10 (£8)

Mrs Barbara Nice, a Stockport mother of five, is worried that we are living in a world of ever diminishing friendliness where we keep ourselves to ourselves, heads down, afraid to catch anyone's eye. She wants us all to stand proud, be open and look the World right in the eye – or we won't feel the benefit!

Barbara is the comic creation of Janice Connolly, Phoenix Nights' Holy Mary. Janice has recently finished a run in Beautiful House at Manchester's Library Theatre.

Hilary Mantel

Hebden Bridge Picture House

8pm to 9.30pm

£10 (£8) £5 under 26s

Literary Ticket Offer – see Louis de Bernières, Mavis Cheek, Alison Weir, Suzannah Dunn and Hilary Mantel for £22

One of our finest living writers, Hilary Mantel won the 2009 Man Booker Prize for Wolf Hall, a fictional portrait of Thomas Cromwell. It has since become the best-selling Booker winner in the history of the prize. Her other works have also received literary acclaim: Fludd (1989), set in a mill village in the north of England, won the Winifred Holtby Memorial Prize, the Cheltenham Prize and the Southern Arts Literature Prize and An Experiment in Love (1995) won the 1996 Hawthornden Prize. Beyond Black (2005) was shortlisted for both a 2006 Commonwealth Writers Prize and the 2006 Orange Prize for Fiction.

Wolf Hall was also shortlisted for the 2009 Costa Novel Award and recently won the US's National Book Critics Circle Award for fiction. In 2006, Hilary Mantel was awarded a CBE.

Hilary Mantel will read from her work and take questions from the audience.

Roger Higgins Band featuring Gary Boyle

Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

9pm to 11.30pm approx

£8 (£6)

Having lived in New Orleans for a year, soaking up a spicy southern stew of lazy swamp blues and syncopated, funky rhythms, Roger Higgins is back in the UK. He's performing with well known jazz guitarist Gary Boyle who brings a cool, understated, blues flavour to a mix of original material, old blues numbers, and soulful gospel songs. There's a good sprinkling of sweet electric slide guitar from Roger, while Steve Tann (drums) and Hugh Bradley (bass) provide a solid, driving rhythm section.

'Roger Higgins, master of both ethereal atmosphere and sweaty bar rooms'

(Henry Ayrton, BBC North)

'Boyle's guitar is a weightless marvel, so sharp, clean and delicate is his picking'

(Mike Butler, Manchester City Life)

Arioso

Wainsgate Chapel

3pm to 5pm

£8 (£6) £2 under 26s

- Anne Falloon: soprano
Roger Betterton: tenor
Sue Marshall: renaissance violin
Anne Betterton: recorders
Caroline Goddard: renaissance viola
Lisa Colton: viola da gamba and alto voice
Andrew Woolley: harpsichord and bass voice
Martyr Hodgson: lute and chitarrone

The acclaimed period performance group Arioso presents a fascinating show of dance and vocal music to celebrate the opening of the Hebden bridge in 1510. The programme will include some of the best loved renaissance music from the first 100 years of the bridge's life, including famous dances by Praetorius, broken consort music favoured by Queen Elizabeth, songs by Dowland, and settings of the celebrated Aria del Gran Duca - O che nuove miracolo. Arioso will also perform pieces from the very beginnings of the baroque era. This enjoyable and highly accessible mix could be enhanced only by the near-perfect acoustic of the venue.

www.arioso.org.uk

NB: there is no parking at the Chapel. Please park in Old Town Mill Lane, walk or catch the bus.

See www.wainsgate.co.uk for a map.

The Hepton Singers

Spanning 500 years: music from 1510 to 2010

Directed by Alison West and Roger Scaife

Heptonstall Church

8pm to 10pm

£8 (£6) £2 under 26s

The locally renowned Hepton Singers will celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Hebdon packhorse bridge by singing a varied selection of sacred and secular music connected with the year 1510, by composers such as Josquin des Pres, Clemens non Papa, and William Cornysh. The programme will also include Delius's To be sung of a summer night on the water and the premiere of Afresh, seven times by Alison West which sets a sequence of haiku-like poems by local poet Donald Atkinson in a musical composition of shifting moods - reflective, witty and watery!

Box Office 01422 8426

Preston Reed

Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

9pm to 11.30pm

£9 (£7)

Preston Reed's vast range of original music will forever change your expectations of a guitarist. He has single-handedly re-invented acoustic guitar playing. While never letting his extraordinary technique overshadow the beauty of his music, the multi-award winning Reed engages the entire instrument, creating a rock/jazz rhythm section, melody line and chordal accompaniment simultaneously.

'Widely thought of as the world's most gifted guitarist'
(Total Guitar)

'Spectacular...the best one-man show this reviewer has seen since Bruce Springsteen...A terrific performer' (The Irish Independent)

Going the Distance: Novel Writing Workshops with Anna Chilvers

Hebden Bridge Library, Cheetham Street, Hebden Bridge

This event is supported by Calderdale Libraries.

Getting Going: 10am to 12.30pm

Keeping Going: 2pm to 4.30pm

£10 per workshop or £17 for both. Advance booking essential.

Getting Going: So you want to write a novel. Maybe you have an idea of what it will be about, or maybe you don't. How do you begin? How do you move from a starting point into the unknown? Come along for inspiration and encouragement. Don't forget your pen.

Keeping Going: Keeping the enthusiasm going for 5000 words isn't too hard – but 80000? How do you keep the interest up – your own and the readers'? How do you keep those subplots from getting tangled and taking over? This workshop will suggest some ways of keeping the momentum going, organising your storylines and keeping your characters in order.

Anna Chilvers' first novel Falling Through Clouds was published this year by Bluemoose Books. She is also an events organiser, marathon runner and mother of three children.

Lunchtime Concert: Miriam Roycroft

Heptonstall Church

1pm to 2pm approx

£6 (£4) £1 for under 26s

Miriam Roycroft: cello

Anne-Marie Hastings: piano

Schumann: 5 Stücke im Volkston, for cello and piano
Op 102

Barber: Sonata Op 6

Chopin: Introduction et Polonaise Brillante Op 3

Miriam Roycroft is currently principal cello with Camerata Ireland and plays on a modern cello by Grubaugh and Seifert which she commissioned in 2004.

Anne-Marie Hastings is much in demand as a soloist and as a chamber musician, performing extensively at the Bridgewater and Wigmore Halls, the South Bank and at numerous British Festivals.

500 Voices

Bridgegate, Hebden Bridge

2pm

Supported by Calderdale Council

Spend an hour or so listening to songs in harmony and unison to celebrate the 500th anniversary of the packhorse bridge. Local choirs including Calder Valley Voices will sing a specially commissioned piece by Daniel Bath and charm you with songs from their own repertoire. Come and join in - be one of the 500 Voices! Visit www.500voices.org for more info.

The Piano Club

Heptonstall Church

4pm to 6pm

£6 (£4) £1 under 26s

A gentle and relaxing way to spend a Sunday afternoon. This talented group of pianists based at Halifax's Square Chapel will present a varied and interesting programme featuring French music of the 19th and 20th century and much else besides. Tea, cake and biscuits will be on sale - go on, treat yourself!

Rosie Lugosi's Festival Poetry Slam

Nelson's, Crown Street, Hebden Bridge

8pm to 10pm approx

Rosie Lugosi, Vampire Queen, has been tantalising audiences with her unique blend of poetry, humour, and song for ten years. A mistress of musical mayhem and one of the UK's most in-demand comperes, Rosie will give a short performance before hosting this year's Festival Poetry Slam. Don't miss your chance to impress a notoriously hard to please taskmistress, as well as win the acclaim of Hebden's performance poetry crowd.

'Hugely entertaining, tough-talking ... a celebration of female sexuality, of power and liberation.'

My Sweet Patootie

Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

9pm to 11pm

£9 (£7)

M.S.P. are the "li'l big band" that's busy ripping up the pea-patch with their very own strain of hayseed jazz. Armed with fiddle, finger-style guitar and two voices, it's an old-fashioned shotgun wedding of cool, uptown swing and rural Ontario grit.

Terry Young (guitar & vocals) and Sandra Swannell (fiddle & vocals) were mainstays of Canadian folk-roots group Tanglefoot who appeared at the Festival in 2009 as part of its farewell tour. Since then Terry and Sandra have re-emerged as My Sweet Patootie with a desire to produce fun music with immaculate but exciting playing. While their new sound is a complete departure from Tanglefoot, M.S.P. deliver a stage show packed with the same amount of energy, charm, wit and humour.

Alison Weir and Suzannah Dunn: In Search of Henry's Women

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge
8pm to 10pm approx
£9 (£7)

Literary Ticket Offer – see Louis de Bernières, Mavis Cheek, Alison Weir, Suzannah Dunn and Hilary Mantel for £22

To commemorate the 500th anniversary of the Hebden Bridge, the Festival presents an evening with two writers renowned for their work about the Tudors.

Alison Weir is an unashamedly popular historian and historical novelist whose twenty-three best-selling books - many about the Tudors - have done much to illuminate some of the murkier stretches of our country's past.

'Weir provides immense satisfaction. She writes in a pacy, vivid style, engaging the heart as well as the mind.'
(The Independent)

Suzannah Dunn's new novel is The Confession of Katherine Howard, the story of Henry VIII's teenaged fifth wife who was executed for adultery after only fifteen months of marriage. Her other work includes a best-selling novel about Anne Boleyn, The Queen of Subtleties, and The Sixth Wife, on Katherine Parr. Prior to writing about the Tudors, she published five contemporary-set novels and two collections of stories.

'Dunn is a remarkable writer, a lyricist of ordinary life and ordinary people transfigured by extreme emotion'
(Daily Telegraph)

Stay Up Later With.... Chasing Owls

The Hole in t'Wall, Hangingroyd Lane, Hebden Bridge

9.30pm to 12am

Ben Sunderland	acoustic guitar, vocals
Elspeth Tugwell	keyboards, backing vocals
Rory Piper	guitar
Charlie Mercer	double bass
Callum Bateman	drums

Chasing Owls are a new band from Edinburgh. Making an exciting sound that sits somewhere between new folk and old pop, the band push a performance as high-energy as it is sensitive and considered. Chasing Owls are excited about where 2010 has taken them thus far and are set for a continued busy year: be sure to catch this must-see act while they are in town.

The Todmorden Orchestra

Heptonstall Church

8pm to 10pm

£8 (£6) £2 under 26s

Nicholas Concannon Hodges: Conductor

Andrew Rostron: Leader

with Martyn Jackson: violin

Vaughan Williams: Overture, The Wasps

Butterworth: Banks of Green Willow

Holst: St. Pauls Suite

Beethoven: Overture: The Ruins of Athens

Tchaikovsky: Violin Concerto in D op.35

Hebden Bridge is pleased to welcome The Todmorden Orchestra for its first performance in the Arts Festival. As well as featuring celebrated compositions by some of the greatest English composers, the programme also includes Tchaikovsky's much-loved Violin Concerto for which the soloist will be Martyn Jackson. At the age of 21 Martyn is already an accomplished solo performer, he has given numerous recital and concerto performances throughout the UK, Israel and Europe.

Film Night – Nosferatu and Darius Battiwalla

St Michael's Church, Mytholmroyd

9pm

£7 (£5)

In partnership with The National Blood Service

The Festival presents a rare opportunity to experience a landmark in cinema history accompanied by a live, improvised score.

Nosferatu: the 1922 version directed by FW Murnau, is the first adaptation of Bram Stoker's Dracula and a masterpiece of German expressionist cinema. It remains unparalleled for its oppressive atmosphere and tension. To accompany the film, Darius Battiwalla will improvise live on the organ of St Michael's Church, Mytholmroyd.

Darius performs throughout the UK and abroad as a concert organist and pianist. His performance at the Sheffield Music Festival in 2009 saw gothic film fans turned away from a packed Sheffield Cathedral, so don't miss this chance to experience brooding, after-dark vampirism.

Give Blood

This event is presented in partnership with the National Blood Service. Enrol now at www.nhsbt.nhs.uk or pick up a leaflet at the Festival Shop.

Stay Up Later With... Tom Kitching and Gren Bartley

The Hole in t'Wall, Hangingroyd Lane, Hebden
Bridge

Tom Kitching and Gren Bartley are one of the brightest young acts on the folk scene today. Playing music from a remarkably broad range of sources, their new album Boundary crosses genres with a healthy disdain for arbitrary pigeon-holing of styles and traditions. Some songs just need to be sung.

'A fearsome folk duo of the highest order.'

Hebden Shorts

Little Theatre, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

7.30pm to 9.30pm

First Night Special - Pay What You Want

Six successful writers based in Hebden Bridge experiment with writing short plays for the theatre. Fantastically varied in tone, style and subject matter these pieces pack more wit, drama, and energy into fifteen minutes than most full-length West End pieces can manage. Featuring a full professional cast – including some very famous faces – Hebden Shorts shows the surprising things that can happen when novelists, TV writers and radio dramatists get the chance to work with live performance.

Hebden Shorts will also be performed on Friday July 9 and Saturday July 10 at 7.30 pm.

Tickets £10 (£8)

Dominic Brunt

Rich Hall

Hebden Bridge Picture House
New Road, Hebden Bridge

8pm to 10pm approx
£15 (£12)

Grouchy, deadpan US comedian Rich Hall is the winner of the Perrier Award 2000 and two Emmy Awards. A regular panellist on QI and 8 Out of 10 Cats, don't miss this chance to see the man in action in this special Festival gig.

Rich Hall

Eduardo Niebla Quartet

Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge
9.00pm to 11.30pm (Eduardo on stage at 9.30pm)
£12 (£10 concessions and HX7 members)

Eduardo Niebla: guitarist, composer

Carl Herring: guitar

Ken Marley: double bass

Salvador Niebla: drums

A formidable flamenco-jazz guitar virtuoso, Eduardo Niebla is a master of today's generation; technically superb, breathtakingly versatile, supernaturally talented.

Inspired by tours to India, the Middle East and his adopted Yorkshire homeland, Eduardo presents his stunning new album and compositions from his acclaimed 30 year career - intricately brilliant, passionate flamenco infused with a myriad of Eastern colours and a Gypsy-jazz edge. Accompanied by his brilliant quartet, this is an amazing opportunity to hear world class guitar playing at its very best.

Presented in association with HX7 Jazz Club.

'An imaginative and stimulating instrumental set in which flamenco is infused with classical Indian music and a contemporary jazz edge... top-class playing and beautiful theme.'

(Songlines)

Eduardo Niebla

Pete Morton, Maggie Boyle and Chris Parkinson

The Waterside Room, Hebden Bridge Town Hall

8pm to 10.30pm

£9 (£7)

Pete Morton: vocal, guitar. 'not only impressive but a revelation.....totally original' (The Guardian)

Maggie Boyle: vocal, flute, bodhran. 'a voice the angels would kill for' (Rock 'n Reel)

Chris Parkinson: accordion, harmonica, vocal. 'probably the best accordionist in the world ...and he's touring with us!' (Maggie and Pete)

This is a high-flying combination: a singer/songwriter extraordinaire, a superb traditional singer and one of the folk scene's most sought-after instrumentalists. Pete, Maggie & Chris all excel in their own departments. Together they deliver a richly textured collection of vibrant new songs, beautiful old songs and stunning instrumentals – plus all three voices in three-part harmony... and they have a great time doing it. Superb acoustic music!

Kidsfest – The Sun, the Moon and the Stars

Organised by Hebden Royd Town Council
Holme Street Arts Centre, Hebden Bridge

12 noon to 4pm

FREE

A drop-in event for 4 - 11 year olds and their families. Arts and crafts workshops, plus the chance to join Lefty the Sock in his heroic search when his partner and "sole" mate suddenly disappears. Don't miss Thingumajig Theatre's whimsical and captivating "sock-puppet" show at 2pm.

Lucy May Schofield Simple Book Making Techniques

The Elfin Room, St Michael's Church Hall,
Mytholmroyd

2pm to 4pm

£10

Come along and make some experimental book structures with the Festival's Artist in Residence. During this workshop, you will learn about simple book binding techniques, tools and equipment and the qualities of paper. You will have the chance to handle a unique collection of artists' books that illustrate the structures we create.

Suitable for anyone and everyone, but places are limited, so please book early.

Millegro York Contemporary Choir

Wainsgate Chapel

3pm to 5pm

£8 (£6) £2 under 26s

Established in 2009, Millegro have already become a major force on York's cultural scene. Combining classics, jazz, world music and soul, this innovative 60-strong choir brings a choral celebration dedicated to the diverse and the unexpected!

Alongside pieces by Astor Piazzolla and Bernstein,

Millegro's performance features inspirational music by living composers from Cuba and The Philippines. They also include some unique arrangements of songs from the extensive canon of pop music, and successfully balance this modernity with more traditional songs from England, Spain and Russia. Directed by Ewa Salecka and featuring pianist Greg Birch and Ann Ferguson on flute, Millegro is guaranteed to entertain and inspire in equal measure.

www.millegro.com

Mundo Jazz

Trades Club, Holme Street, Hebden Bridge

9.30pm to 11.30pm

£10 (£8)

What can one say about a band whose songs convey the dangers of environmental degradation, the importance of racial harmony and the inherent evils of capitalism with subtlety and intelligence? One can say they are called Neil Young and Crazy Horse. Mundo Jazz, however, preach peace, love and understanding with all the subtlety of a brick hitting butter, through their ridiculously catchy songs, awful dancing and thunderously crass philosophizing.

A beautifully subtle satire on the likes of Bono and Bob Geldof, Mundo Jazz are also superb musical and comic improvisers, frequently creating songs on the spot and veering off into chaos. Worried about your carbon footprint? Don't bother - you can buy one of theirs after the show...

'Fabulous' (Suzanne Vega)

www.mundojazz.co.uk

John Lyons Cook Up in the Trades Club Kitchen

Trades Club, Hebden Bridge

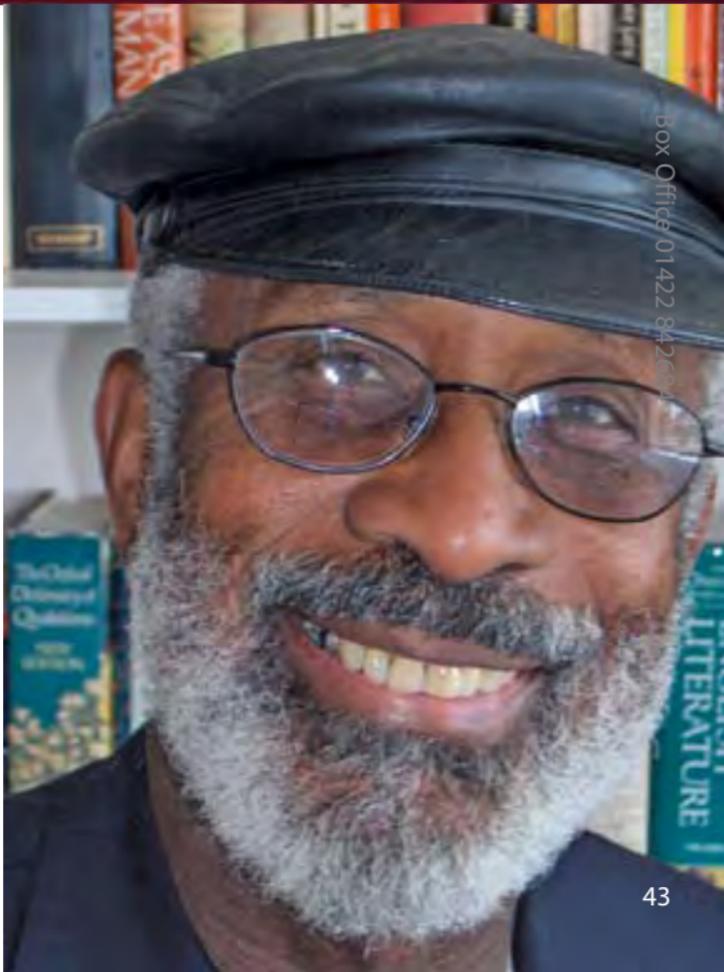

12.30pm to 2pm

£10 (£8) Price includes 3-course meal, but not drinks.

Award-winning Trinidadian poet, artist and cook, John Lyons will return to Yorkshire to celebrate the joint launch of two new books. His New and Selected Poems (Smith/Doorstop) comes out in June 2010, and his book of memoir, anecdote, poetry and Trinidadian recipes, A Cook-Up In A Trini Kitchen has recently been published by Peepal Tree Press. Janet Oosthuysen will use John's recipes to dish up a menu of tasty Trinidadian fare so book early: this promises to be a memorable afternoon of talk, poetry and fine Caribbean-style dining.

Suitable for anyone and everyone. Places limited so early booking advised.

www.lucymayschofield.co.uk

Clare Deniz: cello Rose Andresier: guitar

Wainsgate Chapel, Old Town, Hebden Bridge
3pm to 5pm
£8 (£6) £2 under 26s

Cimarosa: Sonata

JS Bach: Two Part Inventions Nos 8 and 13, Adagio

Albeniz: Granada Op.47

Mozart: Viennese Sonatina No.6

Calatuyud: Two Pieces

Villa Lobos: Prelude No 1

JS Bach: Cello Suite No.1 in G

Schubert: Heidenroslein D.257, An die Musik D. 827

Miteran: Liviana: Divertissement

An unusual and intriguing duo that has given pleasure to audiences the length and breadth of the UK. They have most notably performed at London's South Bank London, and recently at Gower and Guildford Festivals.

'a combination that is a revelation and a delight to the ear'

Stay Up Late With... Rodina plus guests

The Hole in t'Wall, Hangingroyd Lane,
Hebden Bridge

9.30pm to 12am

Aoife Hearty: vocals

Danny Templeman: percussion

Emlyn Vaughn: bass

Jonny Flockton: guitar

Rodina is playing a special set of songs at the Festival, from the debut album Over the Sun. Originally from Co. Laois in Ireland, then emerging from the diverse Leeds music scene, Rodina has a unique style of her own but has been compared to Morcheeba, Goldfrapp and legendary singer Astrud Gilberto. Over the Sun is a cool blend of chill-out, jazz and pop. With ethereal vocals and depth of production, the self-penned songs are catchy and embracing. A great way to chill out on the final night of the Festival.

'a solo singer who embraces acoustica and latino rhythms with a sweet aplomb.....

Rodina un-relentlessly emphasizes quality and sweetness. Sort of like an angel holding court in a smokey, chilled underground bar. A classy performance ...' (Manchester Music)

This popular event returns this year with two new and exciting themes.

Art in Gardens will feature work by local sculptors and ceramicists and will provide a new opportunity to see art in an outdoor environment.

'How does your garden grow?' is a joint venture with Calder Food Hub to encourage people to grow food in whatever space is available to them. Visit www.hebdenbridgetransitiontown.org.uk

A map showing the gardens and further information will be available from the Festival Box Office.

Exhibitions

Festival Exhibition at the Box Office

Saturday June 12 to Sunday July 11

Festival Box Office and Gallery, Albert Street,
Hebden Bridge

Mon to Sat 10.30am-5pm, Sun 12pm-5pm

Martin Parr – the Albert Street Years

In partnership with Calderdale MBC Museums and Galleries

Born in Surrey in 1952, internationally renowned photographer Martin Parr moved to Hebden Bridge in 1974, and, with ceramicist Jenny Beavan and painter Ray Elliot, founded the Albert Street Workshop. It was from 8 Albert Street, now Ribbon Circus, that Parr began his work capturing life in a northern town, recording the everyday moments of Hebden Bridge residents, particularly the congregation of Crimsworth Dean Methodist Chapel. This exhibition offers a not to be missed opportunity to remember how we used to live.

Curated by Christine Bradley, the exhibition comprises photographs loaned from the Martin Parr collection held by Calderdale Museums and Galleries Service. We would like to thank Richard McFarlane and his colleagues for their support.

INFORMATION

Acknowledgments

A huge thank you to Arts Council England, Yorkshire, Hebden Royd TC, Sweet & Maxwell and Kala Gallery for their financial help. We would also like to thank Dr Linda Patterson for her donation towards the Grand Piano at Heptonstall Church. More thanks are owed to Hole in t'Wall, Print Bureau, Squeeze, Croft Mill, Amy at Ribbon Circus and Harold Crabtree for their continued help and support. We are also very grateful to all the other individuals and businesses who have offered help in kind. Thank you also to those who have taken advertising space in the programme. Finally, a special thanks to our volunteers (and their very understanding partners) without whom the Festival would cease to exist.

Festival Gallery and Box Office

The box office is at New Oxford House, Albert Street, Hebden Bridge HX7 8AH (opposite the Albert Pub) where regular exhibitions are held throughout the year. The box office will open daily from Saturday June 12 to the end of the Festival from 10.30-5.00 (from noon on Sundays). Please call in to see our Martin Parr exhibition and to catch up on all the latest Festival information.

Booking Information

- We do not charge for postal or telephone bookings but there is a 60p charge for posting tickets. There will be a charge for online booking, but this is levied by the e-ticketing provider.
- Tickets cannot be reserved without payment.
- Tickets cannot be exchanged or refunded except in the event of a show cancellation.
- Festival events start punctually at the advertised time. To avoid disruption to the performers and to other members of the audience, latecomers may not be admitted.
- There are no numbered seats for any event and seating at the Trades Club is not guaranteed.
- Concession prices apply to full-time students, the unemployed, disabled visitors (and one helper), senior citizens and children 16 and under. You will need to be able to present proof of your status when booking or at the venue.

Contacting Us

The Festival telephone is staffed "live" during opening hours from June 12 to July 11 and at all other times there is an answerphone. Phone messages are checked daily. Our phone number is 01422 842684. You can also reach us by email at hbfestival@gmail.com

Advance Booking

Postal booking and online booking opens on Monday May 10. Please complete the booking form in the centre of this programme. Some events will sell out quickly and so we recommend early booking online or by post to avoid disappointment. Unfortunately, we are unable to accept telephone or face to face bookings before the box office opens on June 12.

Festival Website

Check our website at www.hbaf.co.uk for the latest details and press releases. We are also on Facebook, so join us there, too!

Future Information

If you would like to be kept in touch with the Festival by email or post, please complete the form on the box office desk or email us at hbfestival@gmail.com.

HBAFFs (Hebden Bridge Arts Festival Friends)

Details of our new Friends scheme are available on our website or from the Festival Box Office.

Liability

Hebden Bridge Arts Festival cannot accept liability for any loss, damage or injury sustained by any member of the public visiting any open studios, open gardens, exhibitions or outdoor events featured in this programme. The public participate in these events entirely at their own risk.

Organisation

This is the seventeenth consecutive summer Arts Festival. We are a company limited by guarantee and a registered charity (no. 1070600).

Volunteers

If you would like to be involved with the 2011 festival please leave your name and address with a volunteer in the box office or telephone 01422 842684. New faces are always welcome.

Venue Information & Disabled Access

All Hebden Bridge venues are a short walk from the centre of town. Mytholmroyd venues, Heptonstall Church and Wainsgate Chapel can be reached by public transport. There is disabled access to Little Theatre, Picture House, AJ's, Hebden Bridge Library, Heptonstall Church and the Festival Box Office, where the door at the rear of the building has no steps. For information about access to other venues, please enquire at the Box Office or directly with the venue.

The right is reserved

To substitute artists and vary the advertised programme if necessary. All information is correct at the time of going to press.

A word from our sponsors...

We wish the Hebden Bridge Arts Festival every success with its exciting-looking 2010 programme!

This is the third successive year we at Sweet & Maxwell have supported the Festival and we continue to be very proud of our commitment to it.

Sweet & Maxwell (now part of Thomson Reuters) is a publisher of legal information both online and in print, with a history dating back to 1799. Headquartered in London, but with a large office in Mytholmroyd, our range of titles is one of the most comprehensive and distinguished in the world today, and many of our titles are bywords for legal authority.

As a leading employer in the Calder Valley, we have a strong commitment to the community and our role within it. We hope our support of the Festival will continue to develop and nurture this relationship.

Miles Hutchinson
Director, Sweet & Maxwell
