

HEPTONSTALL PACE EGG 2018

Heptonstall Pace Eggers look forward to welcoming you this year!

We especially welcome your purses and wallets to the Heptonstall Urban Retail Trading Zone (HURTZ) set up by Pace Egg villains Bold Slasher, Black Prince, King Of Egypt and Hector. They are determined, it seems, to ruin financially the hilltop village of Heptonstall by cutting it off from free trade currently enjoyed by the rest of Calderdale.

Meanwhile St George continues to fight for the promised huge amount of investment that The Doctor desperately needs to be able to resurrect the slain, and continually knock penny muffins out of Tossport's head. Will The Juggler be able to juggle the crowds, the players, and most importantly those knives, without hurting himself or anyone else? There's only one way to find out, come to Weavers' Square, Heptonstall, Good Friday, 30 March.
